

Ending Violence Against Women (EVAW) Project

A Multi-disciplinary Team Approach for Training Criminal Justice Professionals

Presents

Advanced Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Training

Sponsored by the

I-70 West Regional POST Committee

Course Topics	Glenwood Springs March 22 & 23	Trainers
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Predominant Aggressor Analysis• Protection Orders• Stalking• Strangulation• Victim and Suspect Dynamics• Interview Techniques• Evidence Collection	What: FREE training When: March 22 & 23, 2010 8:00 a.m.—5:00 p.m. Day 1 : Domestic Violence Day 2 : Sexual Assault Where: Glenwood Springs City Council Chambers 101 W. 8th Street Glenwood Springs, CO	The EVAW Team consists of trainers with extensive experience in the fields of domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. Trainers support a coordinated response to cases involving violence against women. Law Enforcement Trainer: Detective Karen Turnbull, Lakewood Police Department Prosecutor Trainer: Deputy District Attorney Kari Quevli, 1st Judicial District Victim Advocate Trainer: Tonna Pallas, Therapist, Private Practice
CLE Credits Available		POST Course DI0008 & IV0014

The EVAW Project is a unique collaboration of: The CO District Attorneys Council, The CO Coalition Against Domestic Violence, The CO Coalition Against Sexual Assault, and The County Sheriffs of CO. Funded through the STOP Violence Against Women Act, grant # DOJ 2009-WF-AX-0010, this nationally recognized project has been offering training and technical assistance to communities in Colorado since 1996.

To Register For This Training:

Call, Fax or Email

303-830-9115 phone

linda@cdac.state.co.us

303-830-8378 fax

Name: _____

Agency/Position: _____

Address: _____ City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____